Resolution expressing thanks to the Interim Panel of Eminent Experts

Whereas the thirteen Members named below have served on the Interim Panel of Eminent Experts (IPEE) of the Global Crop Diversity Trust;

Whereas, we note the IPEE led the Trust with great distinction and effect from 2002 to 2007, bringing a diversity of experience and skill in matters technical, political, economic and social;

Whereas, we recognise the service provided by the IPEE has been dedicated, productive and essential to the development of the Trust;

Whereas, we appreciate the IPEE has diligently overseen the establishment of the Trust from its conception through to it becoming an established international fund recognized under international law;

Whereas, the Trust has built a sizable endowment, supported by a broad and growing range of donors;

Whereas, the IPEE oversaw the conclusion of a formal Relationship Agreement with the Governing Body of the International Treaty on Plant Genetic Resources for Food and Agriculture;

And Whereas the Trust has assembled a dedicated staff, articulated a strong vision of an effective global system for plant genetic resources, defined clear principles and criteria for the provision of funding, and established a global programme that has just concluded its first long-term grant for the conservation of a major collection of crop diversity;

Be it resolved that:

The Executive Board of the Global Crop Diversity Trust, at its first meeting on 3 April 2007, wishes to record its profound gratitude for the superb leadership and exemplary stewardship of the Trust by the IPEE.

We honour:

*Fernando Gerbasi (Chair)
